About the project

The SAHARA program focuses on scaling up evidence based 'task sharing' interventions for perinatal mental health and early child development through delivery of comprehensive primary mental health care for first 1000 days of life. Sangath has successfully digitized Thinking Healthy Program- Peer (THPP) delivered; an evidence-based task sharing intervention for perinatal depression and developed Lalan Palan, a video-based parenting intervention for early child development.

We aim to scale these two interventions across 8 districts of Madhya Pradesh by digitally training community-based workers (ASHAs and Anganwadi workers) and provide them continuous supervision.

Essential Candidate requirements

- Bachelor's degree/diploma in Mass Communication, Media Studies, Film Production, or related field.
- Minimum 2 years of experience in videography and video editing.
- Proficiency in video editing software (Adobe Premiere Pro, Final Cut Pro, DaVinci Resolve, etc.).
- Experience working with community-based or development sector projects preferred.
- Ability to travel extensively within project districts.
- Candidates must have their own laptop.

Job Responsibilities

- To prepare public facing dissemination materials
- Capture high-quality video footage and photographs of project activities, events, trainings, and community engagement sessions.
- Plan and execute video shoots in coordination with project teams.
- Edit videos for documentation, awareness campaigns, social media, donor reporting, and project dissemination.
- Develop short documentaries, testimonials, success stories, and promotional videos.
- Ensure proper storage, backup, and cataloguing of all visual content.
- Obtain necessary consent from participants before recording.
- Maintain equipment and ensure its safe handling.
- Coordinate with project staff to ensure timely coverage of activities.
- Support creation of communication and advocacy materials.
