About the programme

This project will explore how a brief, practical counselling approach, based on problem-solving, can be effectively used in secondary schools, and what support schools need to implement it successfully.

The project is funded by Wellcome Trust (UK) and led by Sangath, in partnership with King's College London, Harvard Medical School, the University of Greenwich, the London School of Hygiene & Tropical Medicine, and Cardiff University. UNICEF India is also supporting alignment with education systems.
