The SAHARA program focuses on scaling up evidence based ‘task sharing’ interventions for perinatal mental health and early child development through delivery of comprehensive primary mental health care for first 1000 days of life. Sangath has successfully digitized Thinking Healthy Program- Peer (THPP) delivered; an evidence-based task sharing intervention for perinatal depression and developed Lalan Palan, a video-based parenting intervention for early child development.

We aim to scale these two interventions across 8 districts of Madhya Pradesh by digitally training community-based workers (ASHAs and Anganwadi workers) and provide them continuous supervision.

Essential Candidate requirements

- A Post graduate degree in Public Health, or related Social Sciences
- Expertise in MS Office (Word, PowerPoint, Excel)
- Strong Hindi and English verbal and written communication skills including technical and scientific writing
- Prior experience in qualitative and quantitative research methods, data collection and data analysis
- Willing to do field work in various parts of Madhya Pradesh for at least 2 weeks a month
- Ability to liaise and coordinate with relevant health system stakeholders and project collaborators for intervention implementation
- An independent, organized, and proactive team player
- Owns and can drive a 2-wheeler

Desirable criteria

- Prior experience in systematic and narrative literature reviews
- Prior training in psychology or psychosocial interventions or public health
- Prior experience of working with frontline health workers.
- Expertise in field data collection including administering informed consent (preferred)
- Understanding of and experience in NVivo or MAXQDA for qualitative data analysis
- Basic experience in quantitative analysis using SPSS or Stata
- Ability to work on tight deadlines

Job Responsibilities

- Conduct coverage calls with beneficiaries to conduct coverage monitoring (incidence & cumulative) to check intervention reach.
- Conduct quantitative and qualitative data collection, including structured surveys and brief interviews.
- Undertake field visits to various parts of Madhya Pradesh to observe frontline health workers conducting independent sessions and conduct household visits with beneficiaries.
- Maintain accurate and timely documentation of activities, observations, and findings related to the project.
- Assist in report preparation and contribute to data summaries for supervision and evaluation
